

visual art

friday, february 16th, 7pm, $5 advance-$8 door

A night of visual arts presenting the work of Thomas Anfield as well as other juried work.

Thomas Anfield is a visual and performance artist based in Vancouver. He is represented by Gallery O Contemporary.

Over the years Anfield has created and recreated himself, playing with his alter egos, including a street artist named Pablo Fiasco. After winning a full scholarship to the New York Academy of Art he worked as a muralist in Mexico and Africa. He has exhibited his paintings in numerous international exhibitions. His two person show at the Gallery O Contemporary, with Momo Poppi, was reviewed in Modern Painters magazine. He also held a faculty position at the Vancouver Academy of Art, instructing figurative drawing and painting from 1996-2004.

visual

theatre

saturday, february 24th, 7pm, $12 advance-$15 door

A "dessert theatre" presents three poets, two playwrights, a storyteller, and a comedian. Wine, coffee, and desserts included.

Jacyln Nishi

Vancouver dramatist, presents a premier musical.

Nadine Laughlin

playwright, offers two one-act plays:
'Life Sentence' & 'Dookie Gets a Dog'

Diane Tucker

featured poet, a writer with several publications including 'God on His Haunches'.

Torben Rolfsen

canadian humorist.

Karl Petersen

poet, author of 'Bellowing in the Common'.

evensteven

storyteller.

Bryan Halferty

poet, published in several literary journals.

music

saturday, march 3rd, 7pm, $12 advance-$15 door

A celebration of music from around the world.

Michael Pratt and Lynn McGowan

Their songs range from traditional to contemporary celtic and folk music but always touch the heart, as their voices blend like fine wine. They are the founders of the Jericho Folk Club in Vancouver, running since 1994 with concerts every Tuesday, May through September.

Juan de Marias

Juan de Marias and "Mimbre Flamenco" bring you a mix of traditional and contemporary flamenco music and dance. Juan is from of Spain and grew up with the native art form of moorish and gypsy influence. A fast paced, colourful, and exciting display of masterful technique and grace.

Peter La Grand

Peter La Grand is a singer and a songwriter in the Americana tradition and proud father of two albums, Falling Down in Place (2005) and Duende (2006). Accompanied by Jill Zimmerman (violin, voice) and Ben Keyes (guitar, mandolin, voice), La Grand presents songs that whisper and roar, that shimmer and shine.

theatre

music

all events are held at:
Grace Vancouver Church
1696 w. 7th Ave.
(7th + Pine St.)
Vancouver B.C.

to reserve tickets:
phone: 604-871-4341
online: artsinthecity.com

sponsored by:

isolationbelonging
winter2007

